Africa Trip 2012

Boys in Year 10-12

June/July School Holidays

Challenge yourself with the experience of a lifetime
Trekking, Service and Safari
Purpose

M- To show mercy to those less fortunate than ourselves

I- To gain independence by being away from friends and family

R- Be resourceful by making the most of things we have available to us in Africa

R- Show respect to people who live, think and work differently to us

O- Be open-minded to try new foods, activities and opportunities

R- Display resilience by living without some items that we may take for granted at home
Proposed Itinerary

• Leave Brisbane first weekend of holidays
• Fly to Nairobi- capital of Kenya
• Stay in Nairobi for 2 nights
• Elephant Orphanage
• Bus trip to Arusha (northern Tanzania)- what a road!
• Stay at Ahadi Lodge- Beautiful surprise considering its location
• Climb Mt Meru- 3 nights on mountain (this mountain is used as the training mountain for Mt Kilimanjaro) start training now! [http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Mount_Meru_(Tanzania)]
• Stay at Ahadi Lodge- 2 rest nights
• Visit School of St Jude- one night at school- [http://www.schoolofstjude.co.tz/]
Proposed Itinerary continued

• Back to lodge for 1 night
• Volunteer work at Masaai school - 3 nights in volunteer housing at Matimu School
• Safari - 4 nights at 3 amazing locations - Tarangire, Serengeti and Ngorongoro Crater
• Back to lodge for 1 night
• Rest day, back to Nairobi then fly home
Tour is available for boys in Years 10-12.

Cost will be $6000-$6500 depending on Australian Dollar value and numbers for the trip.

There will be immunizations required for this trip.

The College is already raising money to take over for the schools we visit on this trip.

Two MBBC staff members will be attending this trip.

No parents will be assisting on this trip.

Trip is planned for every 2 years.
Challenge
Deposit can be paid tonight, or expect a payment of about $2000 by mid February to secure airfares

Payment plan for 2012